30. (1) Any notice or process or summons issued by the Commission may be served by any one or more of the following modes as may be directed by the Commission:-

(a) service by any of the parties as may be directed by the Commission.

(b) by hand delivery through a messenger.

(c) by registered post with acknowledgement due;

(d) by publication in newspaper in cases where the Commission is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to service the notices, processes etc. in the manner mentioned above.

(e) In any other manner as considered appropriate by the Commission.

(2) Every notice or process required to be served on or delivered to any person may be sent to the person or his agent empowered to accept service at the address furnished by him for service or at the place where the person or his agent ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain.

(3) In the event any matter is pending before the Commission and the person to be served has authorized an agent or representative to appear for and represent him or her in the matter, such agent or representative shall be deemed to be duly empowered to take service of the notice and processes on behalf of the party concerned in all matters and the service on such agent or representative shall be taken as due service on the person to be served.

(4) Where a notice is served by a party to the proceedings either in person or through registered post, an affidavit of service shall be filed by the party with the Commission giving details of the date and manner of service of notices and processes.

(5) Where any petition is required to be published it shall be published in such form in the newspaper(s) to be specified, for such duration and such time as the Commission may direct.

(6) The Commission may also effect service or give directions for effecting service in any other manner it considers appropriate. The Commission shall be entitled to decide in each case the person(s) who shall bear the cost of such service and publication.

(7) In default of compliance with the requirements of the Regulations or directions of the Commission as regards the service of notice, summons or process or the advertisement and publication thereof, the Commission may either dismiss the petition or give such other or further directions, as the Commission considers appropriate.

(8) No service or publication required to be done shall be deemed invalid by reason of any defect in the name or description of a person provided that the Commission is satisfied that such service is in other respects sufficient, and no proceedings shall be invalidated by reason of any defect or irregularity in the service or publication unless the Commission, on an objection taken, is of the opinion that substantial injustice has been caused by any such defect or irregularity or there are otherwise sufficient reason for doing so.

Filing of reply, opposition, objections etc.

31. (1) Each person to whom the notice of inquiry or the petition is issued (hereinafter called the respondent) who intends to oppose or support the petition shall file reply and the documents relied upon within such period in five copies. In the reply the respondent shall state all facts stated in the notice of inquiry or the petition and may also state such additional facts as he considers necessary for a just decision of the case. The reply shall be signed and verified and supported by affidavit in the same manner as in the case of the petition. The respondent shall also indicate in the reply whether he wishes to participate in the proceedings and be orally heard.

(2) The respondent shall serve a copy of the reply along with the documents duly attested to be true copies on the petitioner or his authorized representative and file proof of such service with the office of the Commission at the time of filing the reply.

(3) Where the respondent states additional facts as may be necessary for the just decision of the case, the Commission may allow the petitioner to file a rejoinder to the reply filed by the respondents. The procedure mentioned above for filing of the reply shall apply mutatis mutandis to the filing of the rejoinder.

(4) (i) Every person who intends to file objections or comments in regard to a matter pending before the Commission, pursuant to the advertisement and publication issued for the purpose (other than the persons to whom notices, processes, etc., have been issued calling for reply) shall deliver in five copies to the officer designated by the Commission for the purpose the statement of the objection or comments with copies of the documents and evidence in support thereof within the time fixed for the purpose.

(ii) The Commission may permit such person or persons including associations, forums as it may consider appropriate, to participate in the proceedings before the Commission, if on the report received From the officer or otherwise, the Commission considers that the participation of such person or persons will facilitate the proceedings and the decision in the matter.

(iii) Unless permitted by the Commission, the person filing objections or comments shall not be entitled to participate in the proceedings. However, the Commission shall be at liberty to take into account the objections and comments filed after giving such opportunity to the parties in the proceedings as the Commission considers appropriate to deal with the objections and comments.
