      a. knowledge of the deponent;
      b. information received by the deponent and
c. belief of the deponent.

IV. Where any statement in the affidavit is stated to be true to the information received by the deponent, the affidavit shall also disclose the source of the information and a statement that the deponent believes that information reflects true position and he has no information/documents etc. which makes the information false or misleading or incomplete.

18. PRESENTATION AND SCRUTINY OF THE PLEADINGS

I. All petitions shall be filed in such number of copies as the Commission may specify and all such copies shall be complete in all respects. All the application before the Commission shall be accompanied by appropriate fee as per TERC Regulation(Miscellaneous Provisions Relating to Petition Fee Regulation, 2005) and subsequent amendments to the same.

II. All petitions shall be presented in person or by any duly authorized agent/representative to an officer designated for the purpose by the Commission (hereinafter called the Receiving officer) at the headquarters or such other filing centre or centers as may be notified by the Commission from time to time during the time notified. The petitions may also be sent by registered post with acknowledgement due to the Commission at the places mentioned above. The Vakalatnama in favour of the Advocate and, in the event the petitions are presented by the authorized agent or representative, the document authorizing the agent or representative shall be filled along with the petition, if not already filed on the record of the case.

III. Upon the receipt of the petition, the receiving officer shall acknowledge the receipt by stamping and endorsing the date on the petition presented and shall issue an acknowledgement with stamp and date to the person filling the petition. In case the petition is received by registered post the date on which the petition is actually received at the office of the Commission shall be taken as date of the presentation of the petition.

IV. The presentation and receipt of the Petition shall be duly entered in the register maintained for the purpose by the office of the Commission.

V. The Receiving officer may decline to accept any petition which is not in conformity with the provisions of the Act or Regulations or directions given by the Commission or is otherwise defective or which is presented otherwise than in accordance with the Regulations or directions of the Commission.

Provided, however, that no petition shall be refused for defect in the pleadings or in their presentation without giving an opportunity to the person filing the petition to rectify the defect within the time, which may be given for the purpose. The Receiving officer shall advise in writing the person filing the petition about the defects in the petition filed.

VI. A party/person aggrieved by any order of the Receiving officer in regard to the presentation of petition may request the matter to be placed before the Secretary of the Commission for appropriate orders.
VII. A party/person dissatisfied by any order of the Secretary may request the matter to be placed before the Commission for appropriate orders. The Chairperson shall be entitled to call for the Petition presented by the party/person and give such directions regarding the presentation and acceptance of the Petition as he considers appropriate.

VIII. If on scrutiny, the petition is not refused or any order of refusal is issued by the Secretary or by the Commission, the petition shall be duly registered and given a number.

IX. As soon as the petition and all necessary documents are lodged and the defects and objections, if any, are removed and the petition has been numbered, the petition shall be put up before the Commission for admission.

X. The Commission may admit the petition for hearing without requiring the attendance of the party/person filing the petition. The Commission shall not pass an order refusing admission without giving the party/person concerned an opportunity of being heard. The Commission may, if it considers appropriate, issue notice to such party/person or persons as it may desire to hear the petition for admission.

XI. If the Commission admits the petition, it may give such orders, directions as may be deemed necessary, for notices to the respondent or other affected or interested parties for filing of replies and rejoined in opposition or in support of the petition in such form as the Commission may direct and for the petition to be placed for hearing.

19. SERVICE OF NOTICES.

I. Any notice or process or summons issued by the Commission may be served by any one or more of the following modes as may be directed by the Commission:-
   a. service by any of the parties as may be directed by the Commission.
   b. by hand delivery through a messenger.
   c. by registered post with acknowledgement due;
   d. by publication in newspaper in cases where the Commission is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to service the notices, processes etc. in the manner mentioned above.
   e. In any other manner as considered appropriate by the Commission.

II. Every notice or process required to be served on or delivered to any person may be sent to the person or his agent empowered to accept service at the address furnished by him for service or at the place where the person or his agent ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain.

III. In the event any matter is pending before the Commission and the person to be served has authorized an agent or representative to appear for and represent him or her in the matter, such agent or representative shall be deemed to be duly empowered to take service of the notice and processes on behalf of the party concerned in all matters and the service on such agent or representative shall be taken as due service on the person to be served.
IV. Where a notice is served by a party to the proceedings either in person or through registered post, an affidavit of service shall be filed by the party with the Commission giving details of the date and manner of service of notices and processes.

V. Where any petition is required to be published it shall be published in such form in the newspaper(s) to be specified, for such duration and such time as the Commission may direct.

VI. The Commission may also effect service or give directions for effecting service in any other manner it considers appropriate. The Commission shall be entitled to decide in each case the person(s) who shall bear the cost of such service and publication.

VII. In default of compliance with the requirements of the Regulations or directions of the Commission as regards the service of notice, summons or process or the advertisement and publication thereof, the Commission may either dismiss the petition or give such other or further directions, as the Commission considers appropriate.

VIII. No service or publication required to be done shall be deemed invalid by reason of any defect in the name or description of a person provided that the Commission is satisfied that such service is in other respects sufficient, and no proceedings shall be invalidated by reason of any defect or irregularity in the service or publication unless the Commission, on an objection taken, is of the opinion that substantial injustice has been caused by any such defect or irregularity or there are otherwise sufficient reason for doing so.

20. FILING OF REPLY, OPPOSITION, OBJECTIONS ETC.

I. Each person to whom the notice of inquiry or the petition is issued (hereinafter called the respondent) who intends to oppose or support the petition shall file reply and the documents relied upon within such period in five copies. In the reply the respondent shall specifically admit, deny or explain the facts stated in the notice of inquiry or the petition and may also state such additional facts as he considers necessary for a just decision of the case. The reply shall be signed and verified and supported by affidavit in the same manner as in the case of the petition. The respondent shall also indicate in the reply whether he wishes to participate in the proceedings and be orally heard.

II. The respondent shall serve a copy of the reply along with the documents duly attested to be true copies on the petitioner or his authorized representative and file proof of such service with the office of the Commission at the time of filing the reply.

III. Where the respondent states additional facts as may be necessary for the just decision of the case, the Commission may allow the petitioner to file a rejoinder to the reply filed by the respondents. The procedure mentioned above for filling of the reply shall apply mutatis mutandis to the filing of the rejoinder.

IV. a. Every person who intends to file objections or comments in regard to a matter pending before the Commission, pursuant to the advertisement and publication issued for the purpose (other than the persons to whom notices, processes, etc., have been issued calling for reply) shall deliver in five copies to the officer designated by the Commission for the purpose the statement of the objection or comments with copies of the documents and evidence in support thereof within the time fixed for the purpose.

b. The Commission may permit such person or persons including associations, forums and corporate bodies as it may consider appropriate, to participate in the proceedings before the Commission, if on the report received from the officer or otherwise, the Commission considers that the participation of such person or persons will facilitate the proceedings and the decision in the matter.
c. Unless permitted by the Commission, the person filing objections or comments shall not be entitled to participate in the proceedings. However, the Commission shall be at liberty to take into account the objections and comments filed after giving such opportunity to the parties in the proceedings as the Commission considers appropriate to deal with the objections and comments.

21. HEARING OF THE MATTER

I. The Commission may determine the stage, the manner, the place, the date and the time of the hearing of the matter as the Commission considers appropriate, consistent with such specific timing requirements as are set forth in the Act or otherwise the need to expeditiously decide the matter.

II.

a. The Commission may decide the matter on the pleadings of the parties or may call for the parties to produce evidence by way of affidavit or lead oral evidence in the matter
b. The Commission may provide or direct the party to provide translator for oral evidence, pleadings as may be considered necessary by the Commission.
c. If the Commission directs evidence of a party to be led by way of affidavit, the Commission may, as and when the Commission considers it to be necessary, grant an opportunity to the other party to cross-examine the deponent of the affidavit.
d. The Commission may, if considered necessary or expedient, direct that the evidence of any of the parties be recorded by an officer or the person designated for the purpose by the Commission.
e. The Commission may direct the parties to file written note of arguments or submission in the matter.
f. A person who is party to any proceedings before the Commission may appear in person or may authorize any of his employees to appear before the Commission and to act plead on his behalf. The person may also authorize a member of any statutory professional body holding a certificate of practice, as the Commission may from time to time specify, to represent him and act and plead on his behalf before the Commission. The Commission may also allow, subject to terms and conditions to be specified from time to time, a person to authorize any other person to represent him and act plead on his behalf.

22. POWER OF THE COMMISSION TO CALL FOR INFORMATION, EVIDENCE, ETC.

I. The Commission may, at any time before passing order on the matter, require the parties or any one or more of them or any other person whom the commission considers appropriate, to produce such documentary or other evidence as the Commission may consider necessary for the purpose of enabling it to pass orders.

II. The Commission may direct the summoning of the witnesses, discovery and production of any document or other material objects producible in evidence, requisitioning any public record from any office, examination by an officer of the Commission or consultant appointed by the Commission, the books, accounts or other documents or information in the custody or control of a person which the Commission considers relevant for the matter.

In accordance with the section 193 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, whoever intentionally gives false evidence in any of the proceedings of the Commission or fabricate false evidence for the purpose of being used in any of the proceedings shall be punishable with imprisonment of either description for a term which may be extended to seven years and shall also be liable to be fined.

IV. In accordance with the Section 228 of the Indian penal code, 1860, whoever intentionally offers any insult or causes and interruption in any of the proceedings of the Commission shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to Rs. 1,000/- or with both.

23. REFERENCE OF ISSUES TO OTHERS

I. At any stage of the proceedings, the Commission shall be entitled to refer such issue or issues in the matter as in considers appropriate to persons including, but not limited to, the officers and consultants of the Commission whom the commission considers as qualified to verify the documents, statements, data, etc. and to give expert or specialized advice or opinion on such issue or issues.

II. The Commission may nominate from time to time any person including, but not limited to, the officers and consultants to visit any place or places for inspection and report on the matters to be specified by the Commission.

III. The Commission, if it thinks fit, may direct the parties to appear before the persons designated in clause (I) or (II) above to present their respective views on the issues or matters referred to.

IV. The report or the opinion received from such person(s) shall form a part of the records of the case and the parties can request and obtain a copy of the above report received, in accordance with the provisions of Regulation no 18 (VII) read with Regulation no 20(III). The parties shall be entitled to file their version either in support or in opposition to the report or the opinion.

V. The Commission shall duly take into account the report or the opinion given by the person and reply filed by the parties while deciding the matter and if considered necessary, examine the person giving the report or the opinion. Provided, however, that the Commission shall not be bound by the report or the opinion given.

24. PROCEDURE TO BE FOLLOWED WHERE ANY PARTY DOES NOT APPEAR.
   I. When, on the date fixed for hearing or any other date to which such hearing may be adjourned, if any party or his authorized agent or representative does not appear when the matter is called for hearing, the Commission may, in its discretion, either dismiss the petitioner or the person who moves the Commission for hearing is absent or proceed expert to hear and decide the petition.
   II. Where a petition is dismissed in default or decided ex-party, the person aggrieved may file an application within 30 days from the date of such dismissal or being proceeded ex-party, as the case may be, for recall of the order passed, and the Commission may recall the order on such terms as it thinks fit, if the Commission is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for the non-appearance when the petition was called for hearing.

25. ORDERS OF THE COMMISSION
   I. The Commission shall pass orders on the petition and the Chairman and the Members of the Commission, who heard the matter, will sign the orders.
   II. The reasons given by the Commission in support of the orders, including those by the dissenting members, if any, shall form a part of the order and shall be available for inspection and supply of copies in accordance with these Regulations.
   III. All orders and decisions issued or communicated by the Commission shall be certified by the signature of the Secretary or an Officer empowered in this behalf by the Chairman shall bear the official seal of the Commission.
